

Supporting The Nation

BIBBULMUN™

FUND

Investing In and Giving Back to our Aboriginal Communities since 2015

WHO WE ARE

The Bibbulmun Fund is a Community Based Fund established by two commercial entities; Kulbardi Pty Ltd and Kooya, two Aboriginal-owned businesses designed to 'give back' to the Aboriginal community right across Australia.

The name 'Bibbulmun' represents 1 of the 14 clans of the Noongar Nation of the southwest of Western Australia and the Bibbulmun peoples' dialect belongs to the oldest linguistic clan.

Although founded in WA, the Bibbulmun Fund has extended its reach to the broader Aboriginal community across Australia.

The Bibbulmun Fund is held in trust by the Fremantle Foundation (ABN: 23 992 104 836), a community foundation that supports and administers family, individual and corporate giving.

Kooya

WHAT WE DO

The Bibbulmun Fund aims to open new possibilities for Aboriginal enterprise and foster entrepreneurial leadership by supporting Aboriginal-owned and delivered projects which focus on real outcomes and collaborative approaches toward economic development.

It is led by an advisory board who approve support for regionally relevant initiatives that facilitate positive impact throughout Aboriginal Australia.

ADVISORY BOARD MEMBERS

The Bibbulmun Fund utilises the collective expertise of current leading Aboriginal business leaders:

Kim Collard, Founder & Executive Chairman, Kulbardi

A Balladong-Whadjuk man of the Noongar Nation, and a leader in the Aboriginal business community, Kim is a highly respected and influential member of the Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal community.

With experience as the former CEO, and current Executive Chairman, of Australia's largest Aboriginal-owned business and office supply company Kulbardi, and the current Executive Chairman of Kooya, Kim is also the Director of his own education and training consultancy firm Kooya Consultancy.

A compassionate leader with warmth and humility, Kim's most rewarding role is the Chairperson of the Bibbulmun Fund, a not for profit arm designed to 'give back' to the Aboriginal community right across Australia.

Besides his children, the Bibbulmun Fund is his proudest achievement. With commitment and devotion, he is deeply motivated to chair the Advisory Board towards facilitating positive change 'by Aboriginal people, for Aboriginal people'.

Sharna Collard, Chief Executive Officer, Kooya

Sharna Collard is a Balladong-Whadjuk woman of the Noongar Nation and the CEO of Kooya. Kooya is Australia's first and largest Aboriginal-owned Fleet, Finance and Salary Packaging Company. Kooya provides bespoke leasing, rental, fleet management and salary packaging products across Australia for all types of environments.

Sharna has worked comprehensively in the Aboriginal business Sector and is a director of the Noongar Chamber of Commerce and Industry (NCCI). Sharna has a strong passion for working with Aboriginal women and broader Aboriginal people/communities who have the desire to establish their own business.

Sharna has won two awards at the Supply Nation Supplier Diversity awards as Young Indigenous Entrepreneur of the Year 2018 and Indigenous Businesswoman of the Year 2019.

HOW WE SELECT PROJECTS

The Bibbulmun Fund prioritises projects which support:

LEADERSHIP, ENTREPRENEURSHIP & ENVIRONMENT PROJECTS

Projects offering new opportunities for Aboriginal Enterprise, Entrepreneurship, Leadership and Environmental Sustainability.

ABORIGINAL EDUCATION/ SCHOLARSHIPS

Projects that are designed to support education, curriculum development (STEM) and scholarships for Aboriginal students right across Australia.

COMMUNITY HEALTH PROJECTS

Innovative health projects that have long-term sustainability health outcomes, and have local impact and regional relevance.

EMERGENCY RELIEF PROJECTS

Designed to provide immediate financial support to Aboriginal communities who require emergency relief funding.

CURRENT PROJECTS

To know all about our current projects and where the Bibbulmun Fund is currently giving back to Aboriginal Australia, visit the Bibbulmun Fund website.

bibbulmunfund.net

SUPPORTING THE NATION

A percentage of all sales from Kulbardi flows back into the Bibbulmun Fund. Five percent of profits from Kooya Fleet, Rental and Salary Packaging flows back into the Bibbulmun Fund.

The Bibbulmun Fund has already dedicated over $1,500,000 in grants and remains steadfast in its commitment to Aboriginal Australia.

GET INVOLVED

Visit the Bibbulmun Fund website to:

Submit a Grant Application | Sponsor the Fund | Partner for a Project

bibbulmunfund.net

contact@bibbulmunfund.net

